Structure of An Argumentative Essay

1st Paragraph

- A brief review of the topic, its importance, concise thesis statement.

Body Paragraphs

- The writer develops arguments and supports them with evidence.
- The support should be anecdotal, logical, statistical, or factual.

Conclusion

- The writer synthesizes the information shared in the body of the essay.